Screening Intelligence Offers Background Screening Customers Advanced Website

ScreeningIntelligence.com has recently revamped its website to provide its clients with the most comprehensive information available on background checks and employment screening. It is our goal to be our customers one-stop-shop for background screening information, as we aim to provide not only information about our services but also free resources to help them do their own background research as well. Whether a customer is interested in background checks on a potential tenant or wants to do an employment screen for a recent hire, we have the background screening resources they need right on our website.

In addition to free and convenient sources, we have updated our website to include the most recent news items about our ever-growing and ever-changing industry. This way, our clients know exactly what is happening in the background screening industry and are aware of the latest developments. We have also provided the company's most recent press releases to keep our customers informed of how we are continuing to grow, change and adapt with the times.

On our new Stay Connected page, we provide our clients the opportunity to connect with us on a variety of different social networks. We have launched a campaign in order to make sure that we can connect with every customer who wants to connect with us. Social media networks we are present on include Facebook, Twitter, Tumblr, Pinterest and YouTube, among many others. It is our goal to make ScreeningIntelligence.com the one place on the Internet for all of your background check needs. We want to provide information about tenant screening eviction checks and employment background checks while also giving our clients the resources they need in order to make the best decision for themselves.
